

Middle School Webliography

Sources for Images

- Abraham Lincoln Research Site—
<http://members.aol.com/RVSNorton/Lincoln2.html>. Includes Photo Gallery with many pictures of Lincoln and his family, and artifacts/images concerning the assassination.
- Abraham Lincoln Art Gallery.com—www.abrahamlincolnartgallery.com
Lincoln Portraits and Civil War photographs showing Lincoln visiting campsites.
- Library of Congress—www.loc.gov. Go to “Digital Collections,” then “American History & Culture” or “Prints and Photographs,” then search under “Abraham Lincoln.”
- Indiana Historical Society—www.indianahistory.org. Go to “Collections/Library,” then click on “Online Catalog,” then click on “Images.” Search under “Abraham Lincoln.”
- The History Place—www.historyplace.com/civilwar/cwar-pix/address-1.jpg. Link to image of original Gettysburg Address in Lincoln’s own handwriting.

Sources for Information

- www.archives.gov –The National Archives and Records Administration. Search site for key historical documents, such as Emancipation Proclamation and 13th Amendment.
- <http://edsitement.neh.gov> – EDSITEment The Best of the Humanities on the Web. Great site for lesson plans, activities, and websites with special themes.
- www.whitehousehistory.org –The White House Historical Association. Many resources available on ‘classroom’ link.
- <http://memory.loc.gov/ammem/index.html> – American Memory from the Library of Congress. Search site for images and documents in the Library of Congress collection and visit the Learning Page for lesson plans and activities.
- www.mrlincolnwhitehouse.org – The Lincoln Institute. Information and images about Lincoln’s time at the White House.
- <http://www.senate.gov/> –Home page for the U.S. Senate. Click on ‘Art & History’ tab, then ‘Paintings’ to find ‘First Reading of the Emancipation Proclamation’ by Francis B. Carpenter. An image of the painting plus description.
- <http://www.indianahistory.org/> - Indiana Historical Society. Search site for images of Abraham Lincoln and his surroundings.